ASSOCIATION TOBACCO

of 1906 Aggregate Close to Three Thousand Hogheads

William Elliott, who landed in York Friday, is the recipient of many congratulations today on the great success which attended his efforts to place the association tobacco in the British market. The trip has been very beneficial to him because there is a spring and vim in him which are positively juvenile. In all he succeeded in placing out three thousand hogheads of 1906 crop, Corydon with 409 hogheads and Clay with 474 being additional lots for which a deal has been virtually completed. Certain minor details remain for settlement, but they are not such as are likely to in any degree affect the result. Although the price is not given out, it is known that a good price was obtained and that the tobacco goes into the hands of commission merchants in the old country who will distribute it as is the British fashion.

Mr. Elliott remarked that his first reception was decidedly hostile, particularly on the part of the commission merchants, who thought their very existence was threatened and were not disposed to welcome the new comer. A more cordial and courteous feeling then finally developed, however, it would be impossible to imagine. The market generally recognizes that the Association is a factor of first rate importance and that it has come to stay. It is willing and anxious to deal with it direct and will facilitate all future transactions.

The trip has been productive of much good it has served to dispel the notion that the farmers in the pool were a lot of anarchists, lawless and irresponsible, and has given them a standing commensurate with the scope and importance of their activities.

It is more than probable that further sales will be heard from soon.

Mr. Elliott is enthusiastic in his praise of the latest addition to the United Fruit, the turbine five-decker "Marmarosa," and he looks as prosperous and happy as it he had cornered a good percentage of its golden eggs. —Henderson Journal.

Lost in Cave.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 18.—Lying somewhere in the hitherto unexplored nooks of Horse Cave, a tremendous cavern, which lies under the little town of Horse Cave, in Hart county, Ky., some eighty miles from Louisville, are the remains of William Worth, a lecturer, unless by some chance he is still alive deep in the bowels of the earth and far from the sound of human voices. Worth started to explore the depths of the cavern last Monday, and has not been seen or heard of since. He is supposed to be a Louisville man.

The local police are at work on the case. Worth was fifty-five years old, gray-haired and tall. He wore a long gray mustache and was fairly dressed.

Horse Cave is supposed to extend for miles below the surface of the earth. It underlies the whole town, which bears its name, and much of the surrounding country, but no one as far as can be ascertained, has yet explored it fully. Many years ago a horse while grazing near it fell into an opening in the cavern and broke its neck. Later a town was settled there, which took its name from this accident. It is near Mammoth cave, with which it is supposed to have subterranean connection.

Louis Sliger Acquitted.

Louis Sliger, who was on trial charged with the murder of Chas. McMican, was acquitted by the jury on peremptory instructions from the court Saturday afternoon. The case was set for Friday (the fifth day) and considerable trouble was experienced in getting a jury. Saturday morning the following jury was empanelled:

Edge Oliver, M. B. Deboe, W. N. Cullen, J. G. Lemon, John Gness, W. H. Cullen, D. Ralston, C. H. Walker, Watson Rice, W. T. Russell, A. Burkew, Tom Young.

But as there was practically no evidence to show that any unlawful act had been committed the judge gave peremptory instructions to the jury to find for the defendant. The jury therefore returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant, Louis Sliger, not guilty."

Howerton-Majors.

Sunday afternoon at the home of W. R. Howerton near Mattoon, Mr. Percy Howerton, of the Repton vicinity, was united in marriage to Miss Hattie Majors, of this city. Rev. W. B. Brooks, of Sturgis, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a few friends and after it was over the wedding party was entertained at supper at the home of the groom's father, P. A. Howerton, on the Morganfield road.

The bride is an attractive young woman and has made her home in this city with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Pannan. For the past two few weeks she has taught at Oakland school house and boarded with the Hughes and family.

Miss Yates Stormed.

Miss Kathryn Yates was stormed by a party of boys and girls Saturday evening, Nov. 23. As usual Miss Yates proved a charming hostess. The young people left at a late hour, all saying that they had spent a most delightful evening. Those in the party were:

Misses Madeline Flannery, Madeline Jenkins, Gwendoline Haynes, Frances Blue, Marian Clement, Jessie Croft, Kathryn Yates and Masters Robert Jenkins, Galen Dixon, Orlin Moore, Emmett Clifton, Homer Moore, Gray Rochester and Sylvan Price.

UNABLE TO AGREE

Jury in Hawley-Meadows Case Failed To Reach A Decision.

The jury in the Hawley-Meadows $100,000 damage suit, tried in the U. S. court here Tuesday and Wednesday failed to agree. The body stood ten for Hawley and two for Meadows. Those favoring Hawley were for giving him a verdict for sums running from $2,000 to $50,000. Those for Meadows contended his act was justifiable from the evidence. The body was discharged when it was announced a verdict was impossible.

The case was given to the jury Wednesday afternoon before 5 o'clock and it was out until 6:30 o'clock. Judge Evans dismissed the jurors until 8:30 when the case was again given to them for verdict. They remained out until 10:30 and reported that they were still as they were before, ten for and two against the Rev. Hawley. Judge Evans dismissed them until this morning at 8:30 when they went into their room to try to reach the same conclusion.

Judge Evans told them this morning that the evidence in the case was strongly in favor of the minister and that they should agree upon some judgment or not at all. He allowed them until 10 o'clock when they reported for the last time the same as before.

"This is indeed very remarkable, very remarkable that you cannot agree," stated Judge Evans to them, as they were seated before him. "If I had the time I would stay here until they did reach a verdict."

The two jurors who were opposed to giving the Rev. Hawley any judgment whatever against Meadows were A. A. Sexton, of Azalea, Lyon county, and J. B. Swann, of Murry, Calloway county. Their reasons given by them as stated above.

Those in favor of giving the Rev. Hawley judgment against Meadows were J. D. Foley, Lola, Livingston county, W. D. Hayden, Salem Livingston county, C. A. Bright, Hickory Grove, Graves county, T. T. Riley, Mayfield, Graves county, C. C. Dyson, Paducah, G. H. Burton, Clinton, Hickman county, William McGregor, Marshall county, N. L. Chrisman, Hazel, Calloway county, L. R. Goodaker, Princeton, Caldwell county, D. E. Fox, Shady Grove, Crittenden county.

Judge Evans finally discharged the jurors at seven minutes past 10 o'clock this morning. The counsel for the defense and for the prosecution went into consultation for a few minutes, returning and agreeing to continue the case over to the next term of U. S. court, which will be in April. —Paducah News Democrat.

Jessie Croft Entertains.

Miss Jessie Croft delightfully entertained a few of her friends at her home Friday night, Nov. 15. Delicious refreshments were served in the dining-room. Miss Croft certainly entertained well, if it can be judged from what her guests said of the affair. Those invited were:

Misses Madeline Jenkins, Maude Flannery, Frances Blue, Kathryn Yates, Nannie Rochester, Gwendoline Haynes, Marion Clement and Masters Galen Dixon, Robert Jenkins, Emmett Clifton, Sylvan Price, Gray Rochester, Orlin Moore and Homer Moore.

Girl Freshman Killed.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 19.—Locked in a room on the third floor of a dormitory of the University of South Dakota, at Vermillion, Miss Anna Johnson, a freshman, in attempting to escape by a rope made of lace curtains, lost her hold and fell sixty feet on the frozen ground below, sustaining injuries from which she will die. In an effort to save her life, she was placed aboard a special train and rushed to Sioux City, arriving here this afternoon.

Miss Johnson had been hazed for several days by girl sophomores. She had been finally trapped and confined on the third floor of East hall, in order to prevent her attending the junior reception to the freshmen this evening. Determining to escape, she tore the lace curtains from the windows, tied them into a rope and attached one end to the bedstead and threw the other out of the window. Standing on the sill she grasped the frail strand and swung out. Thirty girl students watched her from below, shouting and begging her not to descend. Ten feet from the window the rope parted and the girl whirled over and over as she came crashing to the ground.

Congregations to Unite.

Last Sunday morning at a congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church called to vote on the question of petitioning for a transfer of the membership from the Paducah Presbytery to the Princeton Presbytery it was decided by a vote of forty-three to twenty-six to ask for the transfer. The session will do this at once. After this is done the two congregations here will unite, and will worship in the Presbyterian church on Belleville street. The advocates of the union are elated over the results and feel that much good will result from this move.

At present the Presbyterian church U. S. A. has no pastor, their former pastor having accepted a position as state evangelist. "In union there is strength."

BONDS PAID OFF

Are Canceled and Burned and Marion Precinct Out of Debt.

An event interesting to every taxpayer in the Marion school district was the burning by Judge Walter Blackburn last Friday of the last bonds which were issued to help build the Ohio Valley Railroad about twenty years ago.

Below we publish the report of the settlement made by sinking fund commissioner R. W. Wilson with his honor County Judge W. A. Blackburn, which is highly gratifying to every citizen of the community interested.

A settlement made with the Judge of the Crittenden County Court by R. W. Wilson, Treasurer of the Sinking Fund of the Ohio Valley Railroad Commission for the Marion Precinct in Crittenden county, this the 22nd day of November 1907.

I find said Treasurer chargeable as follows:—

Collected from J. F. Flannery, Sheriff of Crittenden County on tax for year 1907, Nov., 15, 1907, $2,000

I further find said treasurer is justly entitled to credit as follows:—

By bond No. 14 paid and destroyed, $ 100.00

By bond No. 15 paid and destroyed, 100.00

By bond No. 51 paid and destroyed, 500.00

By bond No. 61 paid and destroyed, 1,000.00

By interest from May 1st, 1907, 57.06

By amount due treasurer as per last settlement May 3rd, 1907, 25.66

Cost of this settlement 5 per cent. commission allowed treasurer on $1,757.72 amount disbursed by him, 88.29

Total credits, 1,874.01

Leaving a balance in hand of said Treasurer, 125.99

I further find that all of said bonds have been paid and destroyed as required by law.

W. A. BLACKBURN, Judge.

Accused of Using Mails to Defraud

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 19.—Indictments against Earl Joyner and Eliam Brown, of Paducah, were returned by the Federal grand jury, charging them with using the United States mails for an illegal purpose.

They started up the Kentucky Matrimonial Bureau, and advertised extensively in city newspapers, offering to furnish "affinities" for $1 per head. They had received over 3,000 letters in less than two weeks, when a Government detective made his appearance and caused a cessation of operations. The boys claimed that they agreed to refund money in case of dissatisfaction and thought themselves well out of the matter.

Joyner is twenty years old and the son of A. L. Joyner, manager of the Cumberland Telephone Company, Western Kentucky district. Young Brown is twenty-three years of age, and is the son of a well-known clothingman. Each gave $500 bond.

Card of Thanks.

Our neighbors were all so kind to us during the illness and death of our baby that we desire to express to them our sincere thanks and we pray God's blessing on you all.

E. K. SUMMERS AND WIFE.

Kentucky Crop Report.

The weather during the month of October was ideal, giving the late planted corn an opportunity to mature before frost. The tobacco crop was saved in good condition: free from frost and damage by being housed during rainy weather. The atmosphere being dry during the housing period but little damage is reported from house burn.

The wheat crop was put in, generally in good condition. The corn land sown to wheat was grassy with some weeds, but with good weather for working the land a good seed bed was secured.

Crittenden County.—There is some corn being gathered and it is reported as not being as good as was expected. Teere was a great deal of late corn and the heavy frosts damaged it considerably. What little wheat that is sown looks fairly well. Tobacco was cut and housed in good condition and I do not hear of any house burn or damage in any way, and about 80 per cent of the crop is pooled. Grasses of all kinds look fairly well. Live stock of all kinds are doing well but hogs. I hear of some sick hogs in some parts of the county but not to any alarming extent.

Marion F. Pogue.

Hon. Marion F. Pogue, of Frances, Crittenden county, was in the city Sunday afternoon, en route home from Louisville, where he spent a few days on business. Mr. Pogue is a Democratic candidate for re-election to the office of Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives. He has served two terms as Assistant Clerk, and in each instance gave perfect satisfaction. In 1902 he served as a member of the Legislature from his district, which composed the counties of Crittenden and Livingston. —Princeton Leader.

His services to the people have always been acceptable and he will be the Assistant Clerk again.

Mrs. Terry Buys Home in Marion.

Mrs. Gus Terry has purchased of Mrs. Sam Gugenheim her residence on College street recently vacated by the Nunn and Tucker families. The price paid, $1500, is exceedingly low for so desirable a piece of property and Mrs. Terry is to be congratulated on her bargain.

A Curiosity.

Mr. J. C. Rorer, of the Fredonia section, was in the city yesterday and brought to this office quite a curiosity in the form of a cluster of corn, there being nine ears that has grown together and under one shuck. There was one large ear, the others being of a smaller size, but all had good sound grains. We were told by Mr. Rorer that he pulled the cluster of corn from the stalk of a twenty-five acre corn field. We have often seen corn in clusters, but this one contains more ears than we ever saw before. —Princeton Leader.

$15.00 In Prizes.

Any boy or girl who wishes to contest for the "Lookyears Prize" offered in the PRESS and who has not a copy of the PRESS can get one by calling at the PRESS office.

For Sale.

On account of health and other business enterprises to take all our time we have decided to dispose of our dairy. We have fifteen cows, good wagon and harness, churns, cans, etc., in fact every thing necessary to run a dairy in first class style.

Crop of 1906 Aggregate Close to Three Thousand Hogsheds

William Elliott, who landed in New York Friday, is the recipient of many congratulations today on the brilliant success which attended his efforts to place the association tobacco in the British market. The trip has been very beneficial to him because and there is a spring and vim in him which are positively juvenile.

In all he succeeded in placing about three thousand hogsheds of the 1906 crop, Cordon with 408 hogsheds and Clay with 474 being the additional lots for which a deal has been virtually completed. Certain minor details remain for settlement, but they are not such as are likely to in any degree affect the result. Although the price is not known out, it is known that a good profit was obtained and that the tobacco goes into the hands of commission merchants in the old country who will distribute it as is the British fashion.

Mr. Elliott remarked that his first reception was decidedly hostile, particularly on the part of the commission merchants, who thought their very existence was threatened and were not disposed to welcome the newcomer. A more cordial and courteous feeling then finally developed, however, it would be impossible to imagine. The market generally recognizes that the Association is a factor of first rate importance and that it has come to stay. It is willing and anxious to deal with it direct and will facilitate all future transactions.

The trip has been productive of much good, it has served to dispel the notion that the farmers in the pool were a lot of anarchists, lawless and irresponsible, and has given them a standing commensurate with the scope and importance of their activities.

It is more than probable that further sales will be heard from soon.

Mr. Elliott is enthusiastic in his praise of the latest addition to the Unad Red, the turbine five-decker "Maurelana," and he looks as prosperous and happy as if he had corralled a good percentage of his golden cargo.—Henderson Journal.

The wheat crop was put in, generally in good condition. The corn land sown to wheat was grassy with some weeds, but with good weather for working the land a good seed bed was secured.

Crittenden County.—There is some corn being gathered and it is reported as not being as good as was expected. There was a great deal of late corn and the heavy frosts damaged it considerably. What little wheat that is sown looks fairly well. Tobacco was cut and housed in good condition and I do not hear of any house burn or damage in any way, and about 80 per cent of the crop is pooled. Grasses of all kinds look fairly well. Live stock of all kinds are doing well but hogs. I hear of some sick hogs in some parts of the county but not to any alarming extent.

Marlon F. Pogue.

Hon. Marlon F. Pogue, of Frances, Crittenden county, was in the city Sunday afternoon, en route home from Louisville, where he spent a few days on business. Mr. Pogue is a Democratic candidate for re-election to the office of Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives. He has served two terms as Assistant Clerk, and in each instance gave perfect satisfaction. In 1902 he served as a member of the Legislature from his district, which composed the counties of Crittenden and Livingston.—Princeton Leader.

His services to the people have always been acceptable and he will be the Assistant Clerk again.

Mrs. Terry Buys Home in Marion.

Mrs. Gus Terry has purchased of Mrs. Sam Gugenheim her residence on College street recently vacated by the Nunn and Tucker families. The price paid, $1500, is exceedingly low for so desirable a piece of property and Mrs. Terry is to be congratulated on her bargain.

A Curiosity.

Mr. J. C. Rorer, of the Fredonia section, was in the city yesterday and brought to this office quite a curiosity in the form of a cluster of corn, there being nine ears that has grown together and under one sheck. There was one large ear, the others being of a smaller size, but all had good sound grains. We were told by Mr. Rorer that he pulled the cluster of corn from the stalk of a twenty-five acre corn field. We have often seen corn in clusters, but this one contains more ears than we ever saw before.—Princeton Leader.

Dick Fowler did Not Run Into Tender

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 21.—Capt. Mark
Cole, Master of the steamer Dick Fowler, and Pilots Mat. Fitcher and Boyace Berryman yesterday evening were exonerated of reckless navigation and violating the pilot's rules by inspectors H. C. Waltz and William J. Hodge, of Memphis.

The charges were brought by Commander L. S. and Dyer, U. S. N., inspector of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth lighthouse districts, who was aboard the lighthouse tender Lily's memorable trip down the Mississippi river with President Roosevelt.

Congressman J. J. Russell, of Misssouri, and Pleas Chapman, of Illinois, who were aboard the Dick Fowler, as guests of the Cairo delegation to the waterways convention at Memphis, were among the witnesses who testified yesterday afternoon that Capt.
Cole and his crew handled the Dick Fowler in a safe manner and that at no time did the Fowler approach nearer than fifty feet of the Lily.
The hearing was held at the Holiday Hotel yesterday afternoon and lasted less than two hours.

How to Cure a Cough.

Be as careful as you can not to occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. For sale by J. H. Orme.

Roll of Honor.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes:
"Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took.
For several years I had stomach trouble and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by Haynes & Taylor and J. H.
Orme, druggists. 50 cents.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Many a Kentucky Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Kentucky.
There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens.
Such evidence should convince the most skeptical sufferer. Read the following statement:

Mrs. L. Varalla, living at 925
Fifth St., Louisville, Ky., says:
"I am happy to say that Doan's Kidney Pills have been of great benefit to me and other members of my family. I frequently had attacks of backache and kidney trouble, before using your remedy, but after using two boxes of the pills the trouble was entirely cured. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a great many of my friends for I am truly and present good health to the use of Doan's Kidney Pills.
They certainly do all that is claimed for them."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Croup Quickly Cured.

A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy bring surprising results when a child shows symptoms of croup.
There is no cause for alarm when this medicine is in the house, as it rarely takes more than three or four doses to bring about a complete cure. It has never failed even in the most dangerous cases, and no home where there are small children can afford to be without it. For sale by J. H. Orme.

Let 'em Come.

The first of the new coinage of gold pieces have reached Paducah. It is a ten dollar gold piece and while a beautiful specimen of the engravers' art is so greatly different from the old ten dollar pieces that it hardly wins favorable comment. Instead of the head of the goddess of liberty on one side, there is an Indian head very similar to the one on a copper cent, while on the other side a strutting eagle is substituted for the soaring eagle on the old coin. There is more polished surface on the new coin, and the words "In God We Trust," that have been stamped on all of our old coins since the foundation of the government, are left off. The coin is quite severely criticised on this account. The milled edge is different from our old coins, stars being substituted. Paducah News-Democrat.

As an honest and faithful chronicler we have recorded the misfortune of the Chicago woman who lost her money and jewels through a hole in her stocking. Now comes a telegram from Hamilton, Ohio, which says: "Mrs. Lizzie Troy, who runs a saloon on East avenue, reported the queer robbery of $110 from her at Lincolnwald Park last night. Mrs. Troy had the money stowed away in her stocking, and while washing some of the folks taking a queer sensation on her leg. Thinking around, she saw a red blood hole with a light straw hat and a light suit of clothes slowly backing away. She promptly Mrs. Troy purchased a plate of ice cream, and reaching for her money box discovered that the roll was missing. If she is not more careful, some thief will steal her partners. Exchange.

Udda Undressing.

Sometimes, when father's out of town. At bed time mother brings my gown. And says to me: "The fireplace is warm and bright, You may undress down here tonight, Where I can see."

And then I sit upon the floor. And mother closes every door. Then in her chair she rocks, and watches me undress. And I go just as slow. I guess she doesn't care.

And then I stand up in my gown, And watch the flames go up and down. As tall as me! But soon I climb on mother's lap. And listen to the fire snap. So comfortably.

Then mother rocks and cuddles me. Close in her arms, where I can see. The cookies shine red. I don't feel sleepy, but some way. When I wake up, then it's next day. And I'm in bed! --[May Kelley in "In lighter vein" in the Century.

In Memoriam.

The subject of this sketch, Rev. Henry Holloman, was born in Benton county, Tennessee, in the year 1841, moved from there to Kentucky when seventeen years of age. He professed faith in a living Christ at the age of eighteen years and joined the Baptist denomination at old Sulphur Spring church in Crittenden county. In early manhood he was married to Miss Maria Stinson. To this union were born eleven children, six boys and five girls, all of whom are still living. All having professed Christ except two.

Feeling that God had called him to preach His blessed word, Bro. Holloman entered the ministry and was ordained to the full work in 1864 near the close of the Civil War. Thus through a long period of forty-two years did he stand as it were upon the walls of Zion proclaiming this great gift to all mankind, a real, personal and living Savior.

The writer upon several occasions has heard Bro. Holloman preach and believes for simplicity, purity and earnestness in presenting the gospel his equal could not be found. He was what might be termed "an old-fashioned preacher," taking the plain Bible truths and presenting them to his hearers in that same earnest, convincing and spiritual manner which characterized the life work of his blessed Master while here on earth. Another servant of the High Priest has gone. Another soldier in the Christian warfare has laid down his armor to answer the last call.

Bro. Holloman was a kind, loving husband and father, a good neighbor and a sympathetic friend. May the Father of all mercies cheer him comfort the bereaved family and friends.

Blessed are the dead who rest in the Lord. Bro. Holloman fell asleep in Jesus Dec. 3, 1906, after a long and painful illness, yet no murmur or complaint, but drew his robes about him and lay down to quiet slumber. The sentiment of his passing away was, "Farewell vain world, I'm going home."

Honolulu Letter.

Hilo, H. I., July 24.—I have been to the Internal Regions and back. That is I have been about as close to them as I care to go. I might say in this connection that it is one of the most beautiful and interesting trips I ever expect to take. The little inter-island steamer, Kona, is not such a boat as I would have imagined it to be. In the least it is not a steamship, but as I am somewhat familiar with such boats I cannot say it is not a very nice one. It is a small, but very comfortable boat, and the crew are very efficient. The trip was very interesting, and the scenery was beautiful. We went to the Internal Regions and back, and saw some of the most beautiful scenery I have ever seen. The trip was very interesting, and the scenery was beautiful. We went to the Internal Regions and back, and saw some of the most beautiful scenery I have ever seen.

dense tropical foliage of vine and palm that it can scarcely be seen. It is just such a place as one could lie in and dream his life away with never an effort at support. From all sorts and flavors abound and is to be had for the taking. I entered a little store and wanted to buy some bananas and was looked upon with suspicion by the proprietor who asked why I did not pick them from the trees if I wanted them.

But it is of the volcano that I started to write. The trouble with this country is that there is so much to tell about that one's pen goes wandering off into all kinds of tangents. We went to the volcano in a stage driven by an old time Florida stage driver, and he regaled us for the entire thirty miles with tales of early California stage driving days. When we reached the Volcano House it was dark and except for the glow from the pit of the crater two miles away we could not tell that anything unusual was around us, except for the fact that the ground was in a constant tremble. But when morning came and I looked out of my window, I felt that I must be mighty close to the pumping of place, for in every direction little jets of steam were coming from the ground while in the distance rose the smoke of the volcano.

Near the hotel were a lot of little houses, and if one wanted a hot bath all he had to do was to go to one of them and a Native woman would do the work. He got it fresh from the mountain. A party of us stepped across the lava flows to the mouth of the crater, and was met by a Native woman who told us that the volcano was not active at the time of our visit, consequently we not only went to the edge of the crater but went down inside a short distance. There we could see the lake of fire, boiling and bubbling, all the world like pictures in Dante's Inferno. Pieces of wood thrown down into the pit would catch fire and blaze up, while the awful cauldron continually boiled and emitted jets of sulphurous steam. Some idea of what this volcano is may be obtained when I tell you that its crater is a mile across, and the old crater, which is filled with molten lava when it is in activity, is four miles across. Back at the hotel we listened to stories of people who had lived there when the volcano was spouting fire, and sending streams of lava down to the sea. We saw strands of hair from the goddess Pele—a peculiar hair like substance which forms near the mouth of the crater, and heard of the strange rites of natives who throw christened things into the volcano to propitiate the goddess, not withstanding the fact that they were all supposed to be good Christians. We inscribed our names in the register, added our note of sentiment to the gems of thought which had been inscribed by the thousands who had preceded us, and are now back at Hilo enjoying a most delightful time under the shade of a bamboo tree.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by Morris & Yates.

Bride Turns to Purple Hue.

Waukegan, Conn., Nov. 25.—As the result of a sheep-skin administered by a Waukegan hairdresser, Miss Maud Fryer has become unconscious and is lying in a hospital. The cause of the trouble was a sheep-skin administered by a Waukegan hairdresser. Miss Fryer was to have been married last Saturday. On the Tuesday before the wedding date, she went to the hairdresser for the shampooing.

Whether an experiment was tried or whether there was a deliberate attempt to interfere with the wedding cannot be learned. Her family presumes the utmost reticence.

Miss Fryer emerged from the ministrations of the hairdresser with her hair stuck together—as though with glue. The doctors have not yet decided whether this glue contains some deleterious drug which has been absorbed through the scalp, or whether Miss Fryer's collapse is due to the nervous shock caused by the discovery of the condition of her hair.

The young woman has lain speechless and apparently unconscious, with her skin slowly assuming the purplish tinge which makes her condition so puzzling that the doctors yesterday afternoon called in a hair specialist. It is understood that the hairdresser will be prosecuted.

To Preserve a Husband.

Select with care, the very young and green varieties take longer to prepare, but are often excellent when done, those too crusty take a long time to cook tender. One neither hard nor yet very soft will give best satisfaction.

Do not keep in a pickle, nor in hot water, for even a little while, as this toughens the fiber, retards the cooking and often spoils the result. Never prick to test for tenderness; this leaves a mark, and they are never so smooth afterward.

Even the poorer varieties may be made sweet and tender by the following methods: Wrap in a mantle of charity and keep warm over a steady fire of loving domestic devotion; garnish with patience, well sweetened with smiles, and flavor with kisses to taste. Serve with peaches and cream. —National Magazine.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountain shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by James H. Orme.
